

THE HAWKER SOCIETY

The Society was founded in July 2011 and is dedicated to the memory of

ROBERT STEPHEN HAWKER

poet, historian, antiquary, and for forty years
Vicar of Morwenstow, Cornwall

THE SOCIETY'S WEBPAGES CAN BE FOUND AT :

www.hawkersociety.org

where we are establishing an illustrated archive of literary, critical, and historical material connected to Hawker, his writings, and his times.

Hawker's Hut by James Hobbs

There is no formal membership procedure at present, but anyone who expresses an interest can receive email notice of updates to the website, and will be kept informed of plans for future Society events.

Our Honorary President is Dr Piers Brendon, author of 'Hawker of Morwenstow: Portrait of a Victorian Eccentric'.

THE HAWKER SOCIETY
AIMS TO :

- perpetuate Hawker's memory and foster and extend interest in his work
- help to protect and conserve the buildings and countryside connected to Hawker and recorded in his writings
- inform members of news and arrange events
- keep members abreast of relevant publications

For more information please visit the Hawker website at

www.hawkersociety.org

Stephen Allen - jstephenallen@btinternet.com
Charles Cox - coxnbx@gmail.com