

THE HAWKER SOCIETY

was founded in July 2011
and is dedicated to the memory of

ROBERT STEPHEN HAWKER

poet, historian, antiquary, and for forty years
Vicar of Morwenstow on the north coast of Cornwall

The Society's Honorary President is Piers Brendon, author of Hawker of Morwenstow: Portrait of a Victorian Eccentric

THE HAWKER SOCIETY AIMS TO :

- perpetuate Hawker's memory and foster and extend interest in his life and works
- help to protect and conserve the buildings and countryside connected to Hawker and recorded in his writings
- inform members of news and arrange events
- keep members abreast of relevant publications

The Society's web pages can be found at www.hawkersociety.org where we are establishing an illustrated archive of literary, critical and historical material connected to Hawker, his writings, and his times.

There is no formal membership procedure at present, but anyone who expresses an interest can receive email notice of updates to the website and will be kept informed of plans for future Society events.

For more information please visit the Hawker website at
